

DANGLO

It's movie blockbuster week in Houston, with Wednesday "Hollywood" and Galleria openings of Mame and The Great Gatsby. It's unfortunate that such highly publicized, super-hyped flicks turned out to be such bombs, but that's show biz (and everyone will see them, anyway). Robert Redford and Lucille Ball are the main attractions so movie and television fans alike will be just thrilled to death. Also opening Wednesday is the hit of the U.S. Film Festival in Dallas, Sugarland Express starring Goldie Hawn (at Cinema II) . . .

As one fan expressed it, Joni Mitchell was "just as much as I thought she'd be and a lot more." The concert was packed; the music was fine and Joni told a very funny story about a party for a girl named Whitey (white hair, complexion, food, furniture and won ton soup without the won tons). Next Hofheinz concert is set for this Sunday, featuring R. E. O. Speedwagon (who were a smash at the Music Hall with Joe Walsh and Focus last year) and the Dubious Brothers . . .

Brewer and Shipley open a four day run tonight at Liberty
