

THE EDMONTON JOURNAL, Friday, May 8, 1964 63

The Journal of Leisure

ARTS THEATRES TELEVISION BOOKS OUTDOORS

Reformed Beatle Will Jazz It Up At Auditorium

By DAVE LAUNDY
A reformed Beatle will keep the Jubilee Auditorium swinging after midnight...

PREPARING FOR A LONG NIGHT OF WORK... from the left Barry Cooper, Lloyd Mallin, Lee Carmichael and Dave Ford

Island Gallery Mirrors Views

NEW YORK (CP) — A 16-story building is a dwarf by Manhattan standards. But as a concentration place, an old-fashioned structure of that height is hard to beat...

Indian Art 'Real Gone'

VANCOUVER (CP) — Four-legged killer whales, blue-backed bears, multi-colored cranes with faces on their breasts...

Creation Glorifies Overalls

OMAHA (AP) — Who threw the overalls in Milton Winick's case? Not the artist...

Set Designer Basks In Rome After Hectic Montreal Task

HOME (CP) — In a studio above his brilliant Roman antiquities, a Canadian painter poses over his "Cathedral Recital Star"...

... And Bear In Mind

An evening of Ukrainian and English folk music comes to the Jubilee Auditorium Saturday...

Pianist's 'Private Lives'

Not Cowen's "Private Lives" which began Wednesday will continue his run at the Jubilee Auditorium...

Organ Recital All Saints Cathedral

102 Street
By CATHERINE SHORE, Vancouver
WEDNESDAY, MAY 13th - 8:30 P.M.

CELEBRITY CONCERT SERIES

Table listing the Celebrity Concert Series for Season 1964-65, including dates and performers like Richard Tucker and M. Marian Anderson.

Advertisement for Piano House, featuring a piano and contact information for Edmonton, Alberta.

Advertisement for Workshop in Church Music and Organ Playing, held at All Saints' Cathedral, Edmonton, June 8-12.

Advertisement for Jacox Galleries, featuring a piano and contact information for Edmonton, Alberta.